Queen Rules and Guidelines - All Divisions

Winners:

- ✓ Pageant winners in each age division will receive a crown and sash.
- ✓ Pageant winners and parents should always represent the city with good behavior.

Queens are required to:

- ✓ __ Carry themselves with dignity, grace, be polite and always use good manners.
- ✓ __ Be respectful of others always. Parents must also work together in a civil and respectful manner to set a good example for their daughters. Drama of any kind will not be tolerated.
- ✓ __ Remain free of any criminal or civil charges; clear of any pending judicial case filed, and never convicted of any crimes.
- ✓ __ Be mindful that tobacco, illegal drug, and alcohol possession or use in public during your reign is strictly prohibited.
- ✓ __ Be mindful of what you post on social media- Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, etc., and the internet.
- ✓ __ Be responsible for travel to and from appearances to include parades, ribbon cuttings, etc. Little Miss and Miss are responsible to and from Miss National Peanut Festival events.
- ✓ __ Be responsible for the costs of clothes for various appearances throughout the year of their reign.
- ✓ __ Replace at your own cost any crowns, sashes, or other items given to you by the chamber if any of those items are lost, stolen, or damaged which are required at appearances.
- ✓ __ Queens / parents will hold fundraisers to help offset the costs of float and decorations as directed by the Daleville Chamber (estimated costs $2000). If you cannot help with the float you will be required to pay a $150.00 fee to the Chamber to offset the cost for finding replacement help. We will participate in more than one (1) Christmas parade (Daleville, Enterprise, Newton, and any others selected by group).
- ✓ __ Must, with assistance of parents, carry out assignments given by the director to help with all float decorations.
- ✓ __ Attend any function of the Daleville Area Chamber of Commerce that the director asks you to attend. Repeated unexcused absences are not acceptable and may lead to revocation of title. Examples of excused absences include: sickness, personal or family emergency or death; an important school activity that could jeopardize grades; a school activity for which your school will not issue a pass; or other circumstance ruled by the director as an approved absence. At all time, during the Queen's reign, a participation of 75% of scheduled events must be maintained.
- ✓ __ Title holders may not compete in another pageant during the year.
- ✓ __ All pageant rehearsals are MANDATORY.

Title Revocation:

- Failure to follow the rules can lead to the possible revocation of title. A queen who must forfeit her title or has her title revoked must turn in the crown, banner and any items given to her by the Chamber, refund any money paid in her name by the chamber or any other organization. She and/or her parents shall also be responsible for refunding registration fees paid for her participation in the Peanut Festival Pageant.

Changes to dates may occur during the year due to unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the Pageant Committee and Daleville Area Chamber of Commerce.

We, contestant and parent, have read and agree to abide by the Queen Rules and Guidelines as stated. We understand that failure to abide by these guidelines can and/or will result in disqualification or revocation of title.
